† Confession and Forgiveness

Pastor: Blessed be the holy Trinity, † one God, the God of manna, the God of miracles, the God of mercy.

Congregation: Amen.

Pastor: Drawn to Christ and seeking God's abundance, let us confess our sin.

Silence is kept for reflection.

God our provider,

Congregation: help us. It is hard to believe there is enough to share. We question your ways when they differ from the ways of the world in which we live. We turn to our own understanding rather than trusting in you. We take offense at your teachings and your ways. Turn us again to you. Where else can we turn? Share with us the words of eternal life and feed us for life in the world. Amen.

Pastor: Beloved people of God, in Jesus, the manna from heaven, you are fed and nourished. By Jesus, the worker of miracles, there is always more than enough. Through Jesus, † the bread of life, you are shown God's mercy; you are forgiven and loved into abundant life.

Congregation: Amen.

† Prayer of the Day

Almighty and merciful God, we implore you to hear the prayers of your people. Be our strong defense against all harm and danger, that we may live and grow in faith and hope, through Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord. Amen.

First Reading Lamentations 3:22-33

²² The steadfast love of the LORD never ceases, his mercies never come to an end;

²³ they are new every morning; great is your faithfulness.

²⁴ "The LORD is my portion," says my soul, "therefore I will hope in him."

²⁵ The LORD is good to those who wait for him, to the soul that seeks him.

²⁶ It is good that one should wait quietly for the salvation of the LORD.

²⁷ It is good for one to bear the yoke in youth,

²⁸ to sit alone in silence when the Lord has imposed it,

²⁹ to put one's mouth to the dust (there may yet be hope),

³⁰ to give one's cheek to the smiter, and be filled with insults.

³¹ For the Lord will not reject forever.

³² Although he causes grief, he will have compassion
according to the abundance of his steadfast love;

³³ for he does not willingly afflict or grieve anyone.

Reader: The Word of the Lord.

Congregation: Thanks be to God.

Psalm 30

read responsively, congregation reads bold print

I will exalt you, O LORD, because you have lifted me up and have not let my enemies triumph over me.

² O LORD my God, I cried out to you, and you restored me to health.

³ You brought me up, O Lord, from the dead;
you restored my life as I was going down to the grave.

⁴ Sing praise to the Lord, all you faithful; give thanks in holy remembrance.

⁵ God's wrath is short; God's favor lasts a lifetime. Weeping spends the night, but joy comes in the morning.

⁶ While I felt secure, I said, "I shall never be disturbed.

⁷ You, Lord, with your favor, made me as strong as the mountains." Then you hid your face, and I was filled with fear.

⁸ I cried to you, O Lord; I pleaded with my Lord, saying,

⁹ "What profit is there in my blood, if I go down to the pit?
Will the dust praise you or declare your faithfulness?"

¹⁰ Hear, O Lord, and have mercy upon me; O Lord, be my helper."

¹¹ You have turned my wailing into dancing; you have put off my sackcloth and clothed me with joy.

¹² Therefore my heart sings to you without ceasing; O Lord my God, I will give you thanks forever.

Second Reading 2 Corinthians 8:7-15

see Celebrate insert

⁷ Now as you excel in everything—in faith, in speech, in knowledge, in utmost eagerness, and in our love for you—so we want you to excel also in this generous undertaking. ⁸ I do not say this as a command, but I am testing the genuineness of your love against the earnestness of others. ⁹ For you know the generous act of our Lord Jesus Christ, that though he was rich, yet for your sakes he became poor, so that by his poverty you might become rich. ¹⁰ And in this matter I am giving my advice:
it is appropriate for you who began last year not only to do something but even to desire to do something— ¹¹ now finish doing it, so that your eagerness may be matched by completing it according to your means. ¹² For if the eagerness is there, the gift is acceptable according to what one has—not according to what one does not have. ¹³ I do not mean that there should be relief for others and pressure on you, but it is a question of a fair balance between ¹⁴ your present abundance and their need, so that their abundance may be for your need, in order that there may be a fair balance. ¹⁵ As it is written, "The one who had much did not have too much, and the one who had little did not have too little."

Reader: The Word of the Lord.

Congregation: Thanks be to God.

† Gospel Acclamation ELW #172 “Halle, Halle, Hallelujah”

Halle, Halle, Hallelujah.
Halle, Halle, Hallelujah.
Halle, Halle, Hallelujah.
Hallelujah. Hallelujah.

† Gospel

Leader: The holy gospel according to Mark 5:21-43

Congregation: Glory to You, O Lord

²¹ When Jesus had crossed again in the boat to the other side, a great crowd gathered around him; and he was by the sea. ²² Then one of the leaders of the synagogue named Jairus came and, when he saw him, fell at his feet ²³ and begged him repeatedly, “My little daughter is at the point of death. Come and lay your hands on her, so that she may be made well, and live.” ²⁴ So he went with him.

And a large crowd followed him and pressed in on him. ²⁵ Now there was a woman who had been suffering from hemorrhages for twelve years. ²⁶ She had endured much under many physicians, and had spent all that she had; and she was no better, but rather grew worse. ²⁷ She had heard about Jesus, and came up behind him in the crowd and touched his cloak, ²⁸ for she said, “If I but touch his clothes, I will be made well.” ²⁹ Immediately her hemorrhage stopped; and she felt in her body that she was healed of her disease. ³⁰ Immediately aware that power had gone forth from him, Jesus turned about in the crowd and said, “Who touched my clothes?” ³¹ And his disciples said to him, “You see the crowd pressing in on you; how can you say, ‘Who touched me?’” ³² He looked all around to see who had done it. ³³ But the woman, knowing what had happened to her, came in fear and trembling, fell down before him, and told him the whole truth. ³⁴ He said to her, “Daughter, your faith has made you well; go in peace, and be healed of your disease.”

³⁵ While he was still speaking, some people came from the leader’s house to say, “Your daughter is dead. Why trouble the teacher any further?” ³⁶ But overhearing what they said, Jesus said to the leader of the synagogue, “Do not fear, only believe.” ³⁷ He allowed no one to follow him except Peter, James, and John, the brother of James. ³⁸ When they came to the house of the leader of the synagogue, he saw a commotion, people weeping and wailing loudly. ³⁹ When he had entered, he said to them, “Why do you make a commotion and weep? The child is not dead but sleeping.” ⁴⁰ And they laughed at him. Then he put them all outside, and took the child’s father and mother and those who were with him, and went in where the child was. ⁴¹ He took her by the hand and said to her, “Talitha cum,” which means, “Little girl, get up!” ⁴² And immediately the girl got up and began to walk about (she was twelve years of age). At this they were overcome with amazement. ⁴³ He strictly ordered them that no one should know this, and told them to give her something to eat.

Postlude “Oh, for a Thousand Tongues to Sing”

arr. James Engel

"Oh, for a Thousand Tongues to Sing" vs. 1,4,6

1 Oh, for a thou-sand tongues to sing my great Re-deem-er's praise,
2 My gra-cious Mas-ter and my God, as-sist me to pro-claim,
3 The name of Je-sus charms our fears and bids our sor-rows cease,
4 He speaks, and lis-t'ning to his voice, new life the dead re-ceive;

the glo-ries of my God and king, the tri-umphs of his grace!
to spread through all the earth a-broad the hon-ors of your name.
sings mu-sic in the sin-ner's ears, brings life and health and peace.
the mourn-ful, bro-ken hearts re-joice, the hum-ble poor be-lieve.

5 Look unto him, your Savior own,
O fallen human race!
Look and be saved through faith alone,
be justified by grace!

6 To God all glory, praise, and love
be now and ever giv'n
by saints below and saints above,
the church in earth and heav'n.

Donate Blood and Be a Hero!

Please consider donating blood at Trinity's blood drive on Saturday, July 17 from 8:30am-12:30pm. Versiti Blood Center of Wisconsin recently issued an emergency appeal for blood donations as communities across the state face a potential crisis with blood supplies dropping to critically low levels. Compared to a typical year, Versiti is down more than 40 percent in donations – or nearly 20,000 units of blood – while the need for blood has increased nearly 10 percent over historical averages. All blood types are needed, with type O-negative and O-positive blood most in demand.

By donating just one pint of blood, you have the potential to save up to three lives. To sign up for your lifesaving appointment, call 1-877-BE-A-HERO, contact Jill Klitz (377-6074, djklitz@milwpc.com) or reserve a spot online at bit.ly/trinityjuly17. Thank you!

Council is looking to hold a Drive Thru Community Brat and Burger Fry in conjunction with our blood drive on Saturday, July 17. The Brat Fry will run from 11 am—2 pm or until sold out. This will be open to the community. We will need some helpers—if you are interested, please contact Bob Callies.

Trinity Scholarship Applicants!

Applications are available in hard copy and electronic versions through the Trinity office. The hard copies are in a yellow folder on the bulletin board outside the office.

Completed applications are due back to the church office by June 30, 2021. No late applications will be accepted. If you have any questions, please call the office.
