9:00 a.m.

11th Sunday after Pentecost

Welcome! We're so glad you're here! Trinity is a caring Christian community for all to grow spiritually and to serve God and the world. Here's some information we thought might be helpful.

We love it when children come to worship! We know bringing your kids to church can be difficult – but we are here to support the entire family. We have a nursery downstairs, if needed, and you can watch the service on TV there so you don't miss anything. Activity bags are available in the back of the church for kids to use during the service. Thank you for teaching your children the importance of worship.

A handicapped-accessible restroom is located in the Parish Hall behind the sanctuary—use the left door in the front of the sanctuary. Other restrooms and a drinking fountain are located downstairs off the dining room.

Holy Communion is celebrated at every worship service. We believe that all of God's children are welcome at the Lord's Table. We practice "open communion" which means if you commune in your home church you are welcome to commune here as well. Children who do not commune are invited to come forward for a blessing.

Please fill out a communion card (found in the pew rack) and give it to the usher as you come forward. If you desire, please share your contact information on the back of the card. You can also note on the card if you have a prayer request, would like someone to contact you, or are interested in membership.

Thanks for joining us in worship of our good and gracious God!

Parish Notices

† Confession and Forgiveness

Pastor: Blessed be the holy Trinity, + one God, whose steadfast love endures forever.

Congregation: Amen.

Pastor: Let us confess our sin in the presence of God and of one another.

Merciful God,

Congregation: we confess that we have not followed your path but have chosen our own way. Instead of putting others before ourselves, we long to take the best seats at the table. When met by those in need, we have too often passed by on the other side. Set us again on the path of life. Save us from ourselves and free us to love our neighbors. Amen.

Pastor: Hear the good news! God does not deal with us according to our sins but delights in granting pardon and mercy. In the name of + Jesus Christ, your sins are forgiven. You are free to love as God loves.

Congregation: Amen.

† Opening Hymn #858 "Praise to the Lord, the Almighty"

vs. 1,2,4

Praise to the Lord, the Almighty, the King of creation!
O my soul, praise him, for he is your health and salvation!
Let all who hear now to his temple draw near,
joining in glad adoration!

Praise to the Lord, who o'er all things is wondrously reigning and, as on wings of an eagle, uplifting, sustaining.
Have you not seen all that is needful has been sent by his gracious ordaining?

Praise to the Lord! Oh, let all that is in me adore him!
All that has life and breath, come now with praises before him!
Let the amen sound from his people again.
Gladly forever adore him!

Text: Joachim Neander, 1650-1680; tr. Catherine Winkworth, 1827-1878, alt.

† Greeting

P: The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Spirit be with you all.

C: And also with you.

† Hymn of Praise #822 “O Sing to the Lord” vs. 1 & 5

Oh, sing to the Lord, oh, sing God a new song.
Oh, sing to the Lord, oh, sing God a new song.
Oh, sing to the Lord, oh, sing God a new song.
Oh, sing to our God, oh, sing to our God.

For Jesus is Lord! Amen! Alleluia!
For Jesus is Lord! Amen! Alleluia!
For Jesus is Lord! Amen! Alleluia!
Oh, sing to our God, oh, sing to our God.

† Prayer of the Day

Gracious God, In your mercy and compassion, you healed all those who approached you in faith. In your suffering and death, you redeemed our ailments and those of the whole human race. We ask for your healing mercy, and for the strength and courage to overcome all adversities through our Lord Jesus Christ. Amen.

First Reading - Isaiah 58:9b-14

⁹Then you shall call, and the LORD will answer; you shall cry for help, and he will say, “Here I am”. If you remove the yoke from among you, the pointing of the finger, the speaking of evil, ¹⁰if you offer your food to the hungry and satisfy the needs of the afflicted, then your light shall rise in the darkness and your gloom be like the noonday. ¹¹The LORD will guide you continually, and satisfy your needs in parched places, and make your bones strong; and you shall be like a watered garden, like a spring of water, whose waters never fail: ¹²Your ancient ruins shall be rebuilt; you shall raise up the foundations of many generations;

you shall be called the repairer of the breach, the restorer of streets to live in.

¹³If you refrain from trampling the sabbath, from pursuing your own interests on my holy day; if you call the sabbath a delight and the holy day of the LORD honorable; if you honor it, not going your own ways, serving your own interests, or pursuing your own affairs; ¹⁴then you shall take delight in the LORD, and I will make you ride upon the heights of the earth; I will feed you with the

Psalms 103:1-8

(read responsively, congregation reads bold print)

¹Bless the LORD, O my soul,
and all that is within me,
bless his holy name.

²Bless the LORD, O my soul,
and do not forget all his benefits —

³who forgives all your iniquity,
who heals all your diseases,

⁴who redeems your life from the Pit,
who crowns you with steadfast love and mercy,

⁵who satisfies you with good as long as you live
so that your youth is renewed like the eagle's.

⁶The LORD works vindication and justice for all who are oppressed.

⁷He made known his ways to Moses,
his acts to the people of Israel.

⁸The LORD is merciful and gracious,
slow to anger and abounding in steadfast love.

Second Reading - Hebrews 12:18-29

¹⁸You have not come to something that can be touched, a blazing fire, and darkness, and gloom, and a tempest, ¹⁹and the sound of a trumpet, and a voice whose words made the hearers beg that not another word be spoken to them. ²⁰(For they could not endure the order that was given, "If even an animal touches the mountain, it shall be stoned to death.") ²¹Indeed, so terrifying was the sight that Moses said, "I tremble with fear." ²²But you have come to Mount Zion and to the city of the living God, the heavenly Jerusalem, and to innumerable angels in festal gathering, ²³and to the assembly of the firstborn who are enrolled in heaven, and to God the judge of all, and to the spirits of the righteous made perfect, ²⁴and to Jesus, the mediator of a new covenant, and to the sprinkled blood that speaks a better word than the blood of Abel.

²⁵See that you do not refuse the one who is speaking; for if they did not escape when they refused the one who warned them on earth, how much less will we escape if we reject the one who warns from heaven! ²⁶At that time his voice shook the earth; but now he has promised, "Yet once more I will shake not only the earth but also the heaven." ²⁷This phrase, "Yet once more," indicates the removal of what is shaken — that is, created things — so that what cannot be shaken may remain. ²⁸Therefore, since we are receiving a kingdom that cannot be shaken, let us give thanks, by which we offer to God an acceptable worship with reverence and awe; ²⁹for indeed our God is a consuming fire.

† Gospel P: The holy gospel according to Luke 13:10-17
C: Glory to You, O Lord

¹⁰Now he was teaching in one of the synagogues on the sabbath. ¹¹And just then there appeared a woman with a spirit that had crippled her for eighteen years. She was bent over and was quite unable to stand up straight. ¹²When Jesus saw her, he called her over and said, "Woman, you are set free from your ailment." ¹³When he laid his hands on her, immediately she stood up straight and began praising God. ¹⁴But the leader of the synagogue, indignant because Jesus had cured on the sabbath, kept saying to the crowd, "There are six days on which work ought to be done; come on those days and be cured, and not on the sabbath day." ¹⁵But the Lord answered him and said, "You hypocrites! Does not each of you on the sabbath untie his ox or his donkey from the manger, and lead it away to give it water? ¹⁶And ought not this woman, a daughter of Abraham whom Satan bound for eighteen long years, be set free from this bondage on the sabbath day?" ¹⁷When he said this, all his opponents were put to shame; and the entire crowd was rejoicing at all the wonderful things that he was doing.

† Hymn of the Day #818 “O Master, Let Me Walk With You” vs.1,3, 4

O Master, let me walk with you in lowly paths of service true;
tell me your secret; help me bear
the strain of toil, the fret of care.

Teach me your patience; share with me
a closer, dearer company,
in work that keeps faith sweet and strong,
in trust that triumphs over wrong,

In hope that sends a shining ray far down the future's broad'ning way, in peace that only you can give;
with you, O Master, let me live.

† Apostles' Creed

I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

I believe in Jesus Christ, God's only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died, and was buried;
he descended to the dead.
On the third day he rose again;
he ascended into heaven,
he is seated at the right hand of the Father, and he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and the life everlasting. Amen.

† Prayers of Intercession

P: Merciful God,
C: receive our prayer.

† Sharing of the Peace

P: The peace of the Lord be with you always.
C: And also with you.

† Post-Communion Blessing

† Prayer After Communion

L: Life-giving God, through this meal you have bandaged our wounds and fed us with your mercy. Now send us forth to live for others, both friend and stranger, that all may come to know your love. This we pray in the name of Jesus. Amen.

† Blessing

The God of peace, Father, † Son, and Holy Spirit, bless you, comfort you, and show you the path of life this day and always. Amen.

“Country in the burg” update. Country in the burg will be making use of the Trinity church parking lots and backyard both days of the concert (August 26th & 27th). Trinity members will not have access after noon on Friday and during the remainder of those days. We will need two people each night from 3pm until 8pm for parking. Those two people have full VIP access to that night’s concert and VIP area. Carol and I will work one night so we only need two additional people.

Trinity will also receive 3 pairs of concert tickets for each day. We will raffle the tickets like we have in the past. If you are interested in the tickets please email me. Specify the night. Any questions please ask - Brant Anderson brant_anderson@hotmail.com or 414 303-1594 (text)

Backpack Blessing on August 28

We will have a Backpack Blessing and special prayers for our kids as they go back to school. Pastor Heidi will hand out some backpack tags to remind kids they carry the support of their God and their congregation. So, kids and grandkids should come with their backpacks on August 28!

There is a sign up sheet just outside the sanctuary near the main entrance or you can let the office know (262-377-0610, office@trinitycedarburg.org). If it is for a special occasion, please let the office know what you would like in the bulletin.

Let's Join Together In Hope!

Outreach for Hope supports life-giving ministries that serve with the people of low-income communities in the Greater Milwaukee Synod. These ministries -- which include food pantries, after-school programs and much more -- not only provide help with daily necessities, but are also centers in the heart of their communities for providing transformation and hope. All are invited to join Trinity's team at the Outreach for Hope Family Ride Run Walk on Saturday, Sept. 24, at Grace Lutheran Church in Grafton (715 Sixth Avenue). There are many ways to participate:

- 2 road rides for the more experienced rider (30 miles, 50 miles)
- A 14-mile family-friendly trail ride on the Interurban Trail
- A 2-mile walk
- New this year: A 5K fun run
- A fellowship-only option for those who plan to attend the event but not participate in a ride, run or walk

• After the rides/run/walk, all registered participants are invited to stay for a picnic lunch. So even if you don't want to do the ride, run or walk, you can still sign up for a fellowship-only option, and enjoy spending time outdoors -- and eating lunch! -- with your fellow Trinity members and the community of Outreach for Hope supporters!

Go to ofhrw.org for more information about the event, or visit Trinity's team page at classy.org/team/434814 to join or support Trinity's team. There is NO registration fee -- instead, pay what you can at registration, and/or collect donations from others leading up to the event. If you'd prefer to register or donate by mail, forms are available on the bulletin boards in church. Please contact Jill Klitz (262-377-6074, djklitz@milwpc.com) with any questions. Thank you!

LWR SCHOOL KITS

It's school kit time again. Like last year, we'll be collecting money donations (we can buy in bulk and save money vs. store prices), but you can also shop if you choose. Just put your purchase in the back of the church by August 28. If you'd like to support this project, please indicate SCHOOL KITS on your donation and turn it into the church by August 28 (you can place it in the offering plate in the back of the church). Thanks for your support of this project. We plan to pack 200 school kits.

We will assemble kits on September 11—God's Work, Our Hands Sunday.

We need for each kit:

- 4 –70 sheet notebooks (wide or college ruled)
- 1– Ruler 30 centimeters/ 12 inches
- 1—Pencil Sharpener (handheld)
- 1– Blunt Scissors (safety with steel blades)
- 5- #2 Pencils with erasers unsharpened
- 5– Pens (black or blue ballpoint such as Bic Stics –no gel)
- 1-Crayola Crayons 24 ct box
- 1-2 1/2" Eraser (such as Pink Pearl, etc)

Help wanted! Jody Hoffmann has been our Coffee Hour coordinator for many years, and has decided to "retire" from the coordinator position. Many thanks to Jody for her work. We usually have a Coffee Hour September through May following the worship service. If you are interested in this, please contact Jim Johnson.

The responsibilities of the lead person are as follows:

Get volunteers to provide treats, make coffee, and clean up afterwards and if a Sunday is open on the sign-up sheet, then the coordinator provides coffee hour.

Advise volunteers how to make coffee—usually 25 to 30 cups unless a meeting is going on during coffee hour, then more like 40 cups. There are instructions for coffee making on the bulletin board in the kitchen.

Make sure there is juice in the frig for all groups—this is in addition to the lemonade which is generally used for funerals. Generally, 2 packs twice a year were purchased, sometimes others put juice in the refrigerator to be used.

Do coffee hour for the annual meeting.

August Readers Corner

In addition to August being the Harvest Month it is also a month of varied and some strange things to be observed. Some notable suggested observations are:

National Sandwich Month
National Crayon Collection Month
National Clown Month
National Brownies at Brunch Month
International ARR-Gust: Pirate Month
Rawgust ????? Who knows what that is?

So, I cannot suggest a theme for reading but do encourage you to check out the books in our library and find a few good reads.

I would suggest:

The Memory Keeper's Daughter	Kim Edwards
Peace Like a River	Leif Enger
Hotel on the Corner of Bitter & Sweet	Jamie Ford
The Drowning Tree	Carol Goodman
