

Welcome to
Trinity Lutheran Church, ELCA
N60 W6047 Columbia Road
Cedarburg, Wisconsin
Pr. Heidi Borkenhagen, interim Pastor

Evangelical Lutheran Church in America
God's work. Our hands.

Our Mission Statement: Through the power of the Holy Spirit, we will share the story of God's love, forgiveness, and grace, and be faithful to God's Word and Commandments.

Sunday, October 23, 2022
9:00 a.m.
20th Sunday after Pentecost

Welcome! We're so glad you're here! Trinity is a caring Christian community for all to grow spiritually and to serve God and the world. Here's some information we thought might be helpful.

We love it when children come to worship! We know bringing your kids to church can be difficult – but we are here to support the entire family. We have a nursery downstairs, if needed, and you can watch the service on TV there so you don't miss anything. Activity bags are available in the back of the church for kids to use during the service. Thank you for teaching your children the importance of worship.

A handicapped-accessible restroom is located in the Parish Hall behind the sanctuary—use the left door in the front of the sanctuary. Other restrooms and a drinking fountain are located downstairs off the dining room.

Holy Communion is celebrated at every worship service. We believe that all of God's children are welcome at the Lord's Table. We practice "open communion" which means if you commune in your home church you are welcome to commune here as well. Children who do not commune are invited to come forward for a blessing.

Please fill out a communion card (found in the pew rack) and give it to the usher as you come forward. If you desire, please share your contact information on the back of the card. You can also note on the card if you have a prayer request, would like someone to contact you, or are interested in membership.

Thanks for joining us in worship of our good and gracious God!

† Congregation will stand if able.

Prelude      “Lord, Listen to Your Children Praying”

K. Medemal
Arr. Jack Schrader

† Confession and Forgiveness

Pastor: Blessed be the holy Trinity, † one God, who is eager to forgive and who loves us beyond our days.

Congregation: Amen.

Pastor: Dear friends, together let us acknowledge our failure to love this world as Jesus does. Silence is kept for reflection.

God of mercy and forgiveness,

Congregation: we confess that sin still has a hold on us. We have harmed your good creation. We have failed to do justice, love kindness, and walk humbly with you. Turn us in a new direction. Show us the path that leads to life. Be our refuge and strength on the journey, through Jesus Christ, our redeemer and friend. Amen.

Pastor: Beloved of God: your sins are forgiven † and you are made whole. God points the way to a new life in Christ, who meets us on the road. Journey now in God's abiding love through the power of the Holy Spirit.

Congregation: Amen.

† Opening Hymn #592 “Just As I Am” vs. 1,2,4

- 1 Just as I am, without one plea,
but that thy blood was shed for me,
and that thou bidd'st me come to thee,
O Lamb of God, I come, I come.
- 2 Just as I am, though tossed about
with many a conflict, many a doubt, fightings and fears within, without,
O Lamb of God, I come, I come.
- 4 Just as I am; thy love unknown
has broken ev'ry barrier down;
now to be thine, yea, thine alone,
O Lamb of God, I come, I come.

† Prayer of the Day

Lord our God, you remind us that all our religious practices are not worth anything if we use them to bend you to our way. God, may we come to you in humility and repentance, ready to encounter you in love and to turn to you. Accept us as your children, together with Jesus Christ, your Son and our Lord forever. Amen.

Anthem

"Joyful, Joyful, We Adore You"

Bell Choir

First Reading - Jeremiah 14:7-10, 19-22

<sup>7</sup>Although our iniquities testify against us, act, O LORD, for your name's sake; our apostasies indeed are many, and we have sinned against you.

<sup>8</sup>O hope of Israel, its savior in time of trouble, why should you be like a stranger in the land, like a traveler turning aside for the night?

<sup>9</sup>Why should you be like someone confused, like a mighty warrior who cannot give help? Yet you, O LORD, are in the midst of us, and we are called by your name; do not forsake us!

<sup>10</sup>Thus says the LORD concerning this people: Truly they have loved to wander, they have not restrained their feet; therefore the LORD does not accept them, now he will remember their iniquity and punish their sins.

<sup>19</sup>Have you completely rejected Judah? Does your heart loathe Zion?

Why have you struck us down so that there is no healing for us? We look for peace, but find no good; for a time of healing, but there is terror instead.

<sup>20</sup>We acknowledge our wickedness, O LORD, the iniquity of our ancestors, for we have sinned against you.

<sup>21</sup>Do not spurn us, for your name's sake; do not dishonor your glorious throne; remember and do not break your covenant with us.

<sup>22</sup>Can any idols of the nations bring rain? Or can the heavens give showers? Is it not you, O LORD our God?

We set our hope on you, for it is you who do all this.

A: The Word of the Lord

C: Thanks be to God

Psalm 84:1-7

(read responsively, congregation reads bold print)

<sup>1</sup>How lovely is your dwelling place,
O LORD of hosts!

<sup>2</sup>My soul longs, indeed it faints
for the courts of the LORD;
my heart and my flesh sing for joy
to the living God.

<sup>3</sup>Even the sparrow finds a home,
and the swallow a nest for herself,
where she may lay her young,
at your altars, O LORD of hosts,
my King and my God.

<sup>4</sup>Happy are those who live in your house,
ever singing your praise.

<sup>5</sup>Happy are those whose strength is in you,
in whose heart are the highways to Zion.

<sup>6</sup>As they go through the valley of Baca
they make it a place of springs;
the early rain also covers it with pools.

<sup>7</sup>They go from strength to strength;
the God of gods will be seen in Zion.

Second Reading - 2 Timothy 4:6-8, 16-18

<sup>6</sup>As for me, I am already being poured out as a libation, and the time of my departure has come. <sup>7</sup>I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith. <sup>8</sup>From now on there is reserved for me the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, will give me on that day, and not only to me but also to all who have longed for his appearing. <sup>16</sup>At my first defense no one came to my support, but all deserted me. May it not be counted against them! <sup>17</sup>But the Lord stood by me and gave me strength, so that through me the message might be fully proclaimed and all the Gentiles might hear it. So I was rescued from the lion's mouth. <sup>18</sup>The Lord will rescue me from every evil attack and save me for his heavenly kingdom. To him be the glory forever and ever. Amen.

† Gospel Acclamation #175

Gospel Acclamation

The musical score consists of two systems, each with a vocal line and a bass line. The vocal line is in treble clef and the bass line is in bass clef. The key signature has one flat (B-flat). The lyrics are: "Al-le - lu - ia, al - le - lu - ia, al - le - lu - ia." The music is written in a simple, rhythmic style with a steady beat. The first system ends with a double bar line, and the second system continues the melody and accompaniment.

Verses may be sung by a leader. Then the alleluia is repeated.

<sup>9</sup>He also told this parable to some who trusted in themselves that they were righteous and regarded others with contempt: <sup>10</sup>Two men went up to the temple to pray, one a Pharisee and the other a tax collector. <sup>11</sup>The Pharisee, standing by himself, was praying thus, 'God, I thank you that I am not like other people: thieves, rogues, adulterers, or even like this tax collector. <sup>12</sup>I fast twice a week; I give a tenth of all my income.' <sup>13</sup>But the tax collector, standing far off, would not even look up to heaven, but was beating his breast and saying, 'God, be merciful to me, a sinner!' <sup>14</sup>I tell you, this man went down to his home justified rather than the other; for all who exalt themselves will be humbled, but all who humble themselves will be exalted."

† Hymn of the Day #856 “How Great Thou Art” vs. 1,3

consider all the works thy hand hath made,

Discussion on our Lutheran Understanding of Government and Civic Engagement

As Lutherans, what do we understand about government and our engagement in civic life? What are our responsibilities as citizens to our life together within a society? How do we share responsibility to seek the common good even as we may disagree about the best ways to achieve it?

The Cedarburg churches—Advent, Faith, Immanuel, and Trinity—will join together four Wednesday evenings, October 12, 19, 26, and November 2, at 7:00 p.m. to discuss the ELCA social message on “Government and Civic Engagement in the United States: Discipleship in a Democracy.” The statement notes that energetic civic engagement is part of our baptismal vocation—individually and as our public witness as church together. All are welcome for an energetic discussion!

Meeting Schedule and Locations:

Oct 26 – Immanuel LC, W61N498 Washington Ave., Discussion Leader, Paul Cooke

Nov 2 – Trinity LC, N60W6047 Columbia Rd., Discussion Leader, Pastor Heidi Borkenhagen

Zoom links will be made available for those who prefer to participate virtually.

You can find more information about the Social Message and other resources here:

The ELCA has adopted a social message on government and civic engagement titled “Government and Civic Engagement in the United States: Discipleship in a Democracy.” This writing project was requested by the 2019 Churchwide Assembly and was adopted in June 2020 by the ELCA Church Council [CC20.06.17].

To help dig into the text, there is a Study Guide, along with a Leader's Guide for those facilitating groups.

We have gone back to having the offering plates in the back of the church. If you have questions or concerns, please talk to Pastor Heidi, council, or the Worship Committee. Thank you for all you do to support the ministry at Trinity! Your offerings, tithes, and sharing your gifts are all needed and appreciated as we serve God and share the Good News of Jesus.

Thanksgiving Dinner: update

Many thanks to Joanne Viesselmann and Cindy Rennie for heading up this year's Thanksgiving Dinner. We will need helpers and pie bakers, more information will follow in the coming weeks.

The All Trinity Committee Meeting, today after the Worship service. This is a time where every Trinity committee will have a representative (or more) getting together to share the goals and needs of each individual committee. Questions can be addressed. Congregation members are welcome as well.

Donate Blood (Or Snacks) And Be A Hero!

Trinity will be hosting a blood drive through Versiti Blood Center of Wisconsin on Saturday, Nov. 12 from 8:30am-12:30pm. By donating just one pint of blood, you have the potential to save up to three lives. The entire process takes about an hour, and all blood types are needed. To sign up for your lifesaving appointment, call 1-877-BE-A-HERO, contact Jill Klitz (262-377-6074, djklitz@milwpc.com) or reserve a spot online at bit.ly/trinitynov12.

Whether or not you're donating blood, you can also help out by donating snacks! The Blood Center will provide juice and packaged snacks, and we're looking to supplement that with some cookies, brownies or other goodies to nourish those who've just donated blood. Please drop off your snacks at Trinity by end of day Friday, Nov. 11 (and label them so we know they're for the blood drive), or let Jill know if you're bringing them on Nov. 12. Thanks for your support!

October Readers Corner by Jody Hoffmann

October is National Breast Cancer Awareness month and October 20th is National Mammography Day.

No matter who you are or where you live, breast cancer will at some point touch your life; it may have already done that. Great strides have been made in promoting behavior that encourages early detection and recognizing the warning signs of breast cancer. The pandemic has caused many women to delay their regular screening. I urge women to get back on their screening schedule and do self-exams. Men, it is your job to remind the women in your life that this is serious business.

What does this have to do with Trinity's library? Nothing, but I had a platform and thought I would use it.

Some fun and interesting books to read this month are:

An American Bride in Kabul, Phyllis Chesler. An autobiographical story of how a Jewish American girl learned to see the world through eastern as well as western eyes. Moving to Kabul with her westernized husband resulted in her being stripped of her passport and rights as her husband returned to his eastern ways.

Sue Grafton alphabet series: The late Sue Grafton is known for her detective novels and in particular her alphabet series. I.e: A is for Alibi. Our library has the novels associated with letters A, N, P, Q, R, S, and U.

The Curious Incident of the Dog in the Night-time: Mark Haddon. Taking place in England the 15-year-old narrator discovers the slain body of his neighbor's poodle, he sets out to track down the murderer.
