Parish Notices

† Remembrance of All Saints

L: When we were baptized in Christ Jesus, we were baptized into his death. We were buried therefore with him by baptism into death, so that as Christ was raised from the dead by the glory of the Father, we too might live a new life. For if we have been united with him in a death like this, we shall certainly be united with him in a resurrection like this.

L: Ignite our souls with the work of your hands through the new life you give us in baptism. We eagerly anticipate the work of your Holy Spirit in the newest members of our Christian family.

† Confession and Forgiveness

All may make the sign of the cross, the sign marked at baptism, as the presiding minister begins.

L: In the name of the father, and of the † Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

L: Let us confess our sin in the presence of God and of one another.

Pause for silence and reflection.

Have mercy on us, O God,

C: We confess that we have sinned against you and against our neighbor. We have built walls instead of tables and have turned away the stranger. We have sought glory for ourselves and have treasured that which does not satisfy. Help us to love as you love, to welcome those you send, and to treasure mercy and justice. Turn us from our ways to your ways, and free us to serve those in need. Amen.

L: God, who makes all things new, forgives your sins for † Jesus' sake and remembers them no more. Lift up your heads and your hearts. Yours is the kingdom of God.

C: Amen.

† Opening Hymn #423 "Shall We Gather At the River" vs. 1,3 see pg. 3

Greeting

P: The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Spirit be with you all.

KREMSE

† Prayer of the Day

Almighty God, you have knit your people together in one communion in the mystical body of your Son, Jesus Christ our Lord. Grant us grace to follow your blessed saints in lives of faith and commitment, and to know the inexpressible joys you have prepared for those who love you, through Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

First Reading Isaiah 25:6-9

⁶ On this mountain the LORD of hosts will make for all peoples a feast of rich food, a feast of well-aged wines, of rich food filled with marrow, of well-aged wines strained clear.

⁷ And he will destroy on this mountain the shroud that is cast over all peoples, the sheet that is spread over all nations;

⁸ he will swallow up death forever. Then the Lord GOD will wipe away the tears from all faces, and the disgrace of his people he will take away from all the earth, for the LORD has spoken.

⁹ It will be said on that day, Lo, this is our God; we have waited for him, so that he might save us. This is the LORD for whom we have waited; let us be glad and rejoice in his salvation.

Reader: The Word of the Lord.

Congregation: Thanks be to God.

Psalm 24 read responsively, congregation reads bold print

¹ The earth is the LORD's and all that is in it, the world and those who dwell therein.

² for the Lord has founded it upon the seas, and established it upon the rivers.

³ Who may ascend the mountain of the Lord, and who may stand in God's holy place?

⁴ Those of innocent hands and purity of heart, who do not swear on God's being, nor do they pledge by what is false.

⁵ They shall receive blessing from the Lord and righteousness from the God of their salvation.

⁶ Such is the generation of those who seek you, O Lord, of those who seek your face, O God of Jacob.

⁷ Lift up your heads, O gates; and be lifted up, O everlasting doors, that the King of glory may come in.

⁸ Who is this King of glory? The Lord, strong and mighty, the Lord, mighty in battle!

⁹ Lift up your heads, O gates; and be lifted up, O everlasting doors, that the King of glory may come in.

¹⁰ Who is this King of glory? Truly, the Lord of hosts is the King of glory.

Second Reading Revelation 21:1-6a

21 Then I saw a new heaven and a new earth; for the first heaven and the first earth had passed away, and the sea was no more. ² And I saw the holy city, the new Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband. ³ And I heard a loud voice from the throne saying, "See, the home of God is among mortals. He will dwell with them; they will be his peoples, and God himself will be with them; ⁴ he will wipe every tear from their eyes. Death will be no more; mourning and crying and pain will be no more, for the first things have passed away."

⁵ And the one who was seated on the throne said, "See, I am making all things new." Also he said, "Write this, for these words are trustworthy and true." ⁶ Then he said to me, "It is done! I am the Alpha and the Omega, the beginning and the end."

Congregation: Glory to You, O Lord

³² When Mary came where Jesus was and saw him, she knelt at his feet and said to him, "Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died." ³³ When Jesus saw her weeping, and the Jews who came with her also weeping, he was greatly disturbed in spirit and deeply moved. ³⁴ He said, "Where have you laid him?" They said to him, "Lord, come and see." ³⁵ Jesus began to weep. ³⁶ So the Jews said, "See how he loved him!" ³⁷ But some of them said, "Could not he who opened the eyes of the blind man have kept this man from dying?" ³⁸ Then Jesus, again greatly disturbed, came to the tomb. It was a cave, and a stone was lying against it. ³⁹ Jesus said, "Take away the stone." Martha, the sister of the dead man, said to him, "Lord, already there is a stench because he has been dead four days." ⁴⁰ Jesus said to her, "Did I not tell you that if you believed, you would see the glory of God?" ⁴¹ So they took away the stone. And Jesus looked upward and said, "Father, I thank you for having heard me. ⁴² I knew that you always hear me, but I have said this for the sake of the crowd standing here, so that they may believe that you sent me." ⁴³ When he had said this, he cried with a loud voice, "Lazarus, come out!" ⁴⁴ The dead man came out, his hands and feet bound with strips of cloth, and his face wrapped in a cloth. Jesus said to them, "Unbind him, and let him go."

† Nicene Creed

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father; through him all things were made. For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven, was incarnate of the Holy Spirit and the virgin Mary and became truly human. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried. On the third day he rose again in accordance with the scriptures; he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is worshiped and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Thank you to Pr. Mark Belknap who will be our supply pastor for most of November.

All Peoples Church is asking for help in providing turkeys for Thanksgiving meal kits that they will pass out to people in their neighborhood in need. We would like to help them out by collecting funds so that they can purchase more turkeys. They can get 10 lb. turkeys for $23. Our goal was to collect enough funds to purchase 10 turkeys. At this point we have enough funds to purchase 13 turkeys. If you want to help, please mark your donation "All Peoples Special Thanksgiving" and we will then forward one check to All Peoples. Please have your donations in by Sunday, November 7. Thank you.

Trinity Community Thanksgiving Dinner Thanksgiving day, November 25, 2021, 12pm

After a one year break due to COVID-19 restrictions, the Trinity Community Thanksgiving Dinner is back! This year's Thanksgiving dinner will be drive-through, carry out style, to accommodate the changing COVID needs.

Bethany (Anderson) Koefel will be organizing the dinner again this year but needs help in order to make it possible. All volunteers will be asked to wear a mask while preparing food. The sign up sheets are in the dining hall and outside the church office.

Please contact Bethany at 414-303-1103 if you can:

Cook on Tuesday/Wednesday at 9am

Carve turkeys on Wednesday at 2pm

Help with carry out Thursday at 11:30am (dinner is at 12pm)

Clean up on Thursday (generally from 1-2pm)

Donate a homemade pumpkin pie

If you or someone you know would enjoy a good home-cooked meal, you are welcome to come, stop by and pick up a dinner!

If you are visiting ...

Welcome! We're so glad you're here! Here's some information we thought might be helpful.

We love it when children come to worship! We have a nursery downstairs, if needed, and activity bags for younger children are available in the back of church for use during the service.

Restrooms and a drinking fountain are downstairs off the dining room. A handicapped-accessible restroom is located in the Parish Hall -- use the pulpit-side door in the front of the sanctuary.

Holy Communion is celebrated at every worship service. We believe that all of God's children are welcome to the Lord's Table. We practice "open communion," which means if you commune in your home church, you are welcome to commune here as well. Children who do not commune are welcome to come forward for a blessing.

Please fill out a communion card (found in the pew rack) and give it to the usher as you come forward. If you desire, please share your contact information on the back of the card. You can also note on the card if you have a prayer request, would like the pastor to contact you, or are interested in membership. We receive new members in the spring and in the fall.

You're welcome to take any of the information from the back tables in the sanctuary, including our monthly Tidings newsletter and a booklet detailing opportunities here at Trinity.
