Christ the King Sunday

Welcome! We're so glad you're here! Trinity is a caring Christian community for all to grow spiritually and to serve God and the world. Here's some information we thought might be helpful.

We love it when children come to worship! We know bringing your kids to church can be difficult – but we are here to support the entire family. We have a nursery downstairs, if needed, and you can watch the service on TV there so you don't miss anything. Activity bags are available in the back of the church for kids to use during the service. Thank you for teaching your children the importance of worship.

A handicapped-accessible restroom is located in the Parish Hall behind the sanctuary—use the left door in the front of the sanctuary. Other restrooms and a drinking fountain are located downstairs off the dining room.

Holy Communion is celebrated at every worship service. We believe that all of God's children are welcome at the Lord's Table. We practice "open communion" which means if you commune in your home church you are welcome to commune here as well. Children who do not commune are invited to come forward for a blessing.

Please fill out a communion card (found in the pew rack) and give it to the usher as you come forward. If you desire, please share your contact information on the back of the card. You can also note on the card if you have a prayer request, would like someone to contact you, or are interested in membership.

Thanks for joining us in worship of our good and gracious God!

† Congregation will stand if able.

Prelude      “Christ the King”
(Le Christ-Roi)

Dom Paul Benoit

Parish Notices

† Litany

P: Music and singing are as old as God’s creation.

C: The Bible is full of songs that sing praise to God and express what words alone cannot say.

P: Today we give thanks for the gift of songs that are meaningful to us.

C: Songs that move our hearts and our souls in ways that we can’t explain.

P: Thank you for the faith of those who have written and composed this music that’s so dear to us.

C: We celebrate you as we sing and reflect on all your blessings.

P: Send your Holy Spirit here now, Lord, as we sing these songs that teach us about you and that proclaim what an amazing God you are.

C: As we sing, move our hearts to know your faithfulness, trust your promises, and accept the grace you offer. Amen.

Advent

Reading: Isaiah 11:1-10

Pastor Heidi Borkenhagen

A shoot shall come out from the stump of Jesse,
and a branch shall grow out of his roots.
The spirit of the Lord shall rest on him,
the spirit of wisdom and understanding, the spirit of counsel and might,
the spirit of knowledge and the fear of the Lord.
His delight shall be in the fear of the Lord.

He shall not judge by what his eyes see, or decide by what his ears hear;
but with righteousness he shall judge the poor,
and decide with equity for the meek of the earth;
he shall strike the earth with the rod of his mouth, and with the breath of his lips he shall kill the wicked.
Righteousness shall be the belt around his waist,
and faithfulness the belt around his loins.

The wolf shall live with the lamb,
the leopard shall lie down with the kid,
the calf and the lion and the fatling together,
and a little child shall lead them.
The cow and the bear shall graze, their young shall lie down together;
and the lion shall eat straw like the ox.
The nursing child shall play over the hole of the asp, and the weaned child shall put its hand on the adder's den.
They will not hurt or destroy on all my holy mountain;
for the earth will be full of the knowledge of the Lord as the waters cover the sea.

On that day the root of Jesse shall stand as a signal to the peoples; the nations shall inquire of him, and his dwelling shall be glorious.

† Hymn # 257 "O Come, O Come Emmanuel" vs. 1,2,7

1 O come, O come, Emmanuel, and ransom captive Israel, that mourns in lonely exile here until the Son of God appear.

7 O come, O King of nations, come,
O Cornerstone that binds in one:
refresh the hearts that long for you;
restore the broken, make us new.
Refrain

Refrain

Rejoice! Rejoice! Emmanuel shall come to you, O Israel.

Text: Psalterium Cantionum Catholicarum, Köln,

2 O come, O Wisdom from on high, embracing all things far and nigh:
in strength and beauty come and stay;
teach us your will and guide our way. Refrain

Christmas

Reading: Luke 2:1-14 (15-20)

Carol P. Anderson

In those days a decree went out from Emperor Augustus that all the world should be registered. This was the first registration and was taken while Quirinius was governor of Syria. All went to their own towns to be registered. Joseph also went from the town of Nazareth in Galilee to Judea, to the city of David called Bethlehem, because he was descended from the house and family of David. He went to be registered with Mary, to whom he was engaged and who was expecting a child. While they were there, the time came for her to deliver her child. And she gave birth to her firstborn son and wrapped him in bands of cloth, and laid him in a manger, because there was no place for them in the inn.

In that region there were shepherds living in the fields, keeping watch over their flock by night. Then an angel of the Lord stood before them, and the glory of the Lord shone around them, and they were terrified. But the angel said to them, "Do not be afraid; for see—I am bringing you good news of great joy for all the people: to you is born this day in the city of David a Savior, who is the Messiah, the Lord. This will be a sign for you: you will find a child wrapped in bands of cloth and lying in a manger." And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host, praising God and saying, "Glory to God in the highest heaven, and on earth peace among those whom he favors!"

Epiphany

Reading: Matthew 2:1-12

Quentin MacDonald

In the time of King Herod, after Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judea, wise men from the East came to Jerusalem, asking, "Where is the child who has been born king of the Jews? For we observed his star at its rising, and have come to pay him homage." When King Herod heard this, he was frightened, and all Jerusalem with him; and calling together all the chief priests and scribes of the people, he inquired of them where the Messiah was to be born. They told him, "In Bethlehem of Judea; for so it has been written by the prophet:

'And you, Bethlehem, in the land of Judah, are by no means least among the rulers of Judah;
for from you shall come a ruler who is to shepherd my people Israel.'

continued

Then Herod secretly called for the wise men and learned from them the exact time when the star had appeared. Then he sent them to Bethlehem, saying, "Go and search diligently for the child; and when you have found him, bring me word so that I may also go and pay him homage." When they had heard the king, they set out; and there, ahead of them, went the star that they had seen at its rising, until it stopped over the place where the child was. When they saw that the star had stopped, they were overwhelmed with joy. On entering the house, they saw the child with Mary his mother; and they knelt down and paid him homage. Then, opening their treasure chests, they offered him gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh. And having been warned in a dream not to return to Herod, they left for their own country by another road.

Hymn # 310 "Songs of Thankfulness and Praise" vs. 1,4

- 1 Songs of thankfulness and praise, Jesus, Lord, to thee we raise;
manifested by the star
to the sages from afar, branch of royal David's stem
in thy birth at Bethlehem:
anthems be to thee addressed,
God in flesh made manifest.

- 4 Grant us grace to see thee, Lord, present in thy holy word;
grace to imitate thee now and be pure, as pure art thou;
that we might become like thee
at thy great epiphany,
and may praise thee, ever blest,
God in flesh made manifest.

Text: Christopher Wordsworth, 1807-1885, alt.

† Prayers of Intercession

P: Lord, in your mercy,
C: receive our prayer.

Lent

Reading: Romans 5:6-11

Rich Weber

For while we were still weak, at the right time Christ died for the ungodly. Indeed, rarely will anyone die for a righteous person—though perhaps for a good person someone might actually dare to die. But God proves his love for us in that while we still were sinners Christ died for us. Much more surely then, now that we have been justified by his blood, will we be saved through him from the wrath of God. For if while we were enemies, we were reconciled to God through the death of his Son, much more surely, having been reconciled, will we be saved by his life. But more than that, we even boast in God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have now received reconciliation.

Prayer

Dear God,
What wondrous love is this love of yours!
We thank you and we praise you.
Thank you for sending your own son to die for our sins.
It's more than we can comprehend,
what a wondrous gift.
We open our empty hands and hearts to receive your gifts.
Cleanse us from all unrighteousness, create in us a clean heart and fill us with your love and grace.
In your precious name,
Amen.

Hymn #666 “What Wondrous Love is This” vs. 1,2,

- 1 What wondrous love is this,
O my soul, O my soul!
What wondrous love is this, O my soul!
What wondrous love is this that caused the Lord of bliss to bear the dreadful curse
for my soul, for my soul,
to bear the dreadful curse for my soul?

- 2 When I was sinking down, sinking down, sinking down,
when I was sinking down, sinking down,
when I was sinking down
beneath God's righteous frown, Christ laid aside his crown
for my soul, for my soul,
Christ laid aside his crown for my soul.

Text: North American folk hymn, 19th cent., alt.

Easter

Reading: Matthew 28:1-8

Carol P. Anderson

After the sabbath, as the first day of the week was dawning, Mary Magdalene and the other Mary went to see the tomb. And suddenly there was a great earthquake; for an angel of the Lord, descending from heaven, came and rolled back the stone and sat on it. His appearance was like lightning, and his clothing white as snow. For fear of him the guards shook and became like dead men. But the angel said to the women, “Do not be afraid; I know that you are looking for Jesus who was crucified. He is not here; for he has been raised, as he said. Come, see the place where he lay. Then go quickly and tell his disciples, ‘He has been raised from the dead, and indeed he is going ahead of you to Galilee; there you will see him.’ This is my message for you.” So they left the tomb quickly with fear and great joy, and ran to tell his disciples .

Hymn #365 “Jesus Christ is Risen Today” vs. 1,2,

- 1 Jesus Christ is ris'n today, Alleluia!
our triumphant holy day, Alleluia!
who did once upon the cross, Alleluia!
suffer to redeem our loss. Alleluia!
- 2 Hymns of praise then let us sing, Alleluia!
unto Christ, our heav'nly king, Alleluia!
who endured the cross and grave, Alleluia!
sinners to redeem and save. Alleluia!

Text: Latin carol, 14th cent., sts. 1-3; tr. J. Walsh, Lyra Davidica, 1708, alt.; Charles Wesley, 1707-1788, st. 4

Pentecost

Reading: Acts 2:1-8, 12-21

Patrick Doughman

When the day of Pentecost had come, [the apostles] were all together in one place. And suddenly from heaven there came a sound like the rush of a violent wind, and it filled the entire house where they were sitting. Divided tongues, as of fire, appeared among them, and a tongue rested on each of them. All of them were filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other languages, as the Spirit gave them ability.

Now there were devout Jews from every nation under heaven living in Jerusalem. And at this sound the crowd gathered and was bewildered, because each one heard them speaking in the native language of each. Amazed and astonished, they asked, “Are not all these who are speaking Galileans? And how is it that we hear, each of us, in our own native language? All were amazed and perplexed, saying to one another, “What does this mean?” But others sneered and said, “They are filled with new wine.”

But Peter, standing with the eleven, raised his voice and addressed them, “Men of Judea and all who live in Jerusalem, let this be known to you, and listen to what I say. Indeed, these are not drunk, as you suppose, for it is only nine o'clock in the morning. No, this is what was spoken through the prophet Joel:

‘In the last days it will be, God declares, that I will pour out my Spirit upon all flesh,
and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy,
and your young men shall see visions,
and your old men shall dream dreams.
Even upon my slaves, both men and women,
in those days I will pour out my Spirit;
and they shall prophesy.

And I will show portents in the heaven above and signs on the earth below, blood, and fire, and smoky mist.
The sun shall be turned to darkness and the moon to blood, before the coming of the Lord's great and glorious day.
Then everyone who calls on the name of the Lord shall be saved.'"

Hymn #407      "O Living Breath of God"

- 1 O living Breath of God, wind at the beginning upon the waters;
O living Breath of God, bearing the creation to wondrous birth;

Refrain

Come now, and fill our spirits; pour out your gifts abundant.
O living Breath of God, Holy Spirit, breathe in us as we pray.

- 2 O living Breath of God, by whose pow'r the Son came to birth among us;
O living Breath of God, who to the creation gives life anew; Refrain
- 3 O living Breath of God, bearing us to life through baptismal waters;
O living Breath of God, sighing with creation for freedom's birth; Refrain

Christ the King Reading

Reading: Colossians 1:11-20

Quentin MacDonald

May you be made strong with all the strength that comes from his glorious power, and may you be prepared to endure everything with patience, while joyfully giving thanks to the Father, who has enabled you to share in the inheritance of the saints in the light. He has rescued us from the power of darkness and transferred us into the kingdom of his beloved Son, in whom we have redemption, the forgiveness of sins.

He is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of all creation; for in him all things in heaven and on earth were created, things visible and invisible, whether thrones or dominions or rulers or powers—all things have been created through him and for him. He himself is before all things, and in him all things hold together. He is the head of the body, the church; he is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead, so that he might come to have first place in everything. For in him all the fullness of God was pleased to dwell, and through him God was pleased to reconcile to himself all things, whether on earth or in heaven, by making peace through the blood of his cross.

† Closing Hymn #855 “Crown Him with Many Crowns” vs. 1,3,4

1 Crown him with many crowns,
the Lamb upon his throne;
hark, how the heav'nly anthem drowns
all music but its own.
Awake, my soul, and sing
of him who died for thee, and hail him as thy matchless king through all eternity.

4 Crown him the Lord of life, who triumphed o'er the grave and rose victorious in the strife for those he came to save.
His glories now we sing,
who died and rose on high,
who died, eternal life to bring,
and lives that death may die.

3 Crown him the Lord of love-- behold his hands and side, rich wounds, yet visible above,
in beauty glorified.
No angels in the sky
can fully bear that sight, but downward bend their burning eyes at mysteries so bright.

Thanksgiving Dinner: update

Many thanks to Joanne Viesselmann and Cindy Rennicke for heading up this year's Thanksgiving Dinner. It will once again be drive-thru carry out only. There are sign-up sheets for helpers on the bulletin board outside the office as well as one on the bulletin board in the dining hall. We need help with cooking on Wednesday before Thanksgiving, and help with filling the to-go containers, runners, and clean up on Thanksgiving Day.

We are collecting non-perishable food items and other items like soap, paper products, etc. for the Saukville Food Pantry. The Horn of Plenty is on a table in the front of the sanctuary where your donated items can be placed. The table will remain up until Wednesday, November 30 at which time all items will be taken to the Saukville Food Pantry

TLC Reverse Advent Calendar 2022 - What is a reverse Advent Calendar?

Advent is a time of waiting. Advent can also be a time of “doing” as we reflect and wait for the birth of Jesus. Trinity's Reverse Advent Calendar gives us opportunities to light candles, read scripture, collect food and necessities for families who need them, as well as do kind and loving acts for self and others.

A printable calendar will be emailed to the congregation or a copy can be picked up at the church office. Watch bulletins and “This Week at Trinity” emails for details on specific events throughout the Advent Season. Food donations will be donated to the Saukville Food Pantry.

Offering Change

We have gone back to having the offering plates in the back of the church. If you have questions or concerns, please talk to Pastor Heidi, council, or the Worship Committee. Thank you for all you do to support the ministry at Trinity! Your offerings, tithes, and sharing your gifts are all needed and appreciated as we serve God and share the Good News of Jesus.

The Membership Committee would like to get our Helping Hands Program started again. This is open to any member of our congregation. We are offering Companionship Opportunities: Going to movies, luncheon dates, home visits or phone call chats. We are also open to providing transportation to appointments.

With the holidays fast approaching, we could also offer a Christmas shopping outing. Light handy-man services can also be arranged. If any of these items could benefit you, please call Linda in the office (262) 377-0610 as your resource for the outreach.

Come and See the MSP!

The Mission Exploration Team is excited to share the Ministry Site Profile (MSP) with the congregation. This is the document that will go out to prospective pastoral candidates to tell them about Trinity and what you are looking for in your next called pastor. All the surveys, discussions, and questions you have been a part of were used to help the team fill this out. Stay after church today and Sunday, December 4 to see what the MET has been working towards for many months.

Save the Dates!

We have lots of great things happening in December. Mark your calendars to join us for some time in worship and fellowship during Advent. More details will be available soon.

December 3, 9 am: Decorating the Church for Advent/Christmas, light lunch following.

December 9, 6pm: Watch "The Star" in the Youth Room. This tells the Christmas story from the perspective of the animals.

December 13, 6 pm: Christmas Sing-a-long at Water Street Brewery in Grafton. Come get in the Christmas Spirit with other Lutherans from the Grafton/Cedarburg churches.

December 21, 6:30 pm: Longest Night Holden Evening Prayer Service. We will set out luminarias at the beginning. Worship will include a guided Advent meditation. If you like, bring cookies to share afterwards. Hot Chocolate and Cider will be provided.

Second annual, all congregation, decorating of the church, for Advent and Christmas. Saturday, December 3rd, at 9am, with a light lunch to follow. Everyone's help, kids included, is greatly appreciated, to make short work of the decorating. This is like what we did last year that was such great fun and went so quickly due to all the great help we had.

November Readers Corner by Jody Hoffmann

November brings us Thanksgiving, All Saints Day, Veterans Day, Book Lovers Day and Native American Heritage Month. We have books that involve those topics and many other topics for your reading pleasure.

All Saints Day -- November 1

Ninety Minutes in Heaven, Don Piper

A minister driving home from a conference collides with a truck and is pronounced dead at the scene. He experiences heaven where he is greeted by those that have gone before him. Another minister passing the accident stops and prays for him even though he is pronounced dead. The deceased comes back to life and for years he keeps his heavenly experience a secret. He has revealed his remarkable story in this book.

Veterans Day -- November 11

Back From Duty: Ozaukee County's Veterans, Laurie Arndt

We Were Soldiers Once, And Young, Lt. Gen. Harold G. Moore (Ret.) and Joseph L. Galloway
In November of 1965 450 men were dropped into a clearing in the Drang Valley. Immediately they were surrounded. Two and a half miles away, a sister battalion was brutally slaughtered. Together these two battles in the Viet Nam War constituted two of the most significant battles of the war. The poignant account rises above the ordeal depicting men facing the ultimate challenges.

Book Lovers Day -- November 5

The Book Thief -- Markus Zusak

Lizzy Dunfee's favorite author or at least it was, ask her about the book.

Saints for All Occasions, J. Courtney Sullivan

A graceful moving novel from a New York Times best-selling author. This read explores the fascinating, funny, and sometime achingly sad ways a secret at the heart of a family both breaks the family and binds them.
